Text on navy

Usage: navy and cream carry about 70% of any layout; gold is the accent (about 20%). Gold may be a gradient (dark to light) on the logo, arrows and large headings; use flat mid gold elsewhere. On navy: white text, gold headings and icons. On cream: navy text, gold headings, dark gold for small text. Never light gold text on cream.

Print: CMYK values are screen-to-CMYK maths, not a print profile. Give your printer the hex and ask for their nearest match.

TYPOGRAPHY AND LOGO

TYPOGRAPHY

- Wordmark and main headings: high-contrast serif capitals, wide letter-spacing (Cormorant Garamond in Canva).
- Descriptors and straplines: clean sans-serif capitals, wide letter-spacing.
- Banner headlines: bold sans-serif capitals, white and gold (Inter ExtraBold).
- Body: Inter Regular, line height 1.6 to 1.75. Editorial accent: Source Serif 4, sparingly.

LOGO

- Mark: four ascending bars (pill, IV bag, heartbeat line, medical cross) rising to the right, with a sweeping gold arrow above. The tallest bar carries the cross.
- Lock-up: mark above; ELEVATE & THRIVE in wide-tracked gold serif capitals; descriptor in white sans capitals; short gold rule beneath.
- Primary version: gold on deep navy (#03152A).

- Never place the gold logo on cream or photographs without a navy panel.

IMAGERY AND LAYOUT

- Navy and gold only. Gold line icons. Thin gold rules, not heavy boxes.
- Banners: logo left, three service columns, navy contact bar, stone tagline strip, gold curve dividing cream from navy.
- Dark UK maps with glowing gold nodes for Company Intelligence. Laptop and phone mockups for the Hub.
- Real UK clinical settings. Nobody wears a tie in UK hospital images.
- Buttons: gold fill with navy text, about 8px rounded corners.
